WESTMINSTER CATECHISM

Question 28: Wherein did Christ's humiliation consist?
Answer: Christ's exaltation consists in His rising again from the dead on the third day, in ascending up into heaven, in sitting at the right hand of God the Father, and in coming to judge the world at the last day.
Scripture: I Cor. 15:4; Mark 16:19; Eph.1:20; Acts 1:11; Acts 17:31

"Many Members of One Body"

Romans 12:4 "For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office; so we, being many, are one body in Christ."

God in His eternal sovereign foresight, has apportioned to you just the proper place for you. God knows you better than you know yourself. You might say: "Look at the need of the world today. Why does not God give me a fortune to use for world missions?" God knows whether you could stand a million dollars, whether it would be good for you.

We need to be satisfied with the place God has given you. That would be true humility. To deprecate yourself is false humility. But use that place God has given you—occupy it.

Paul then goes on to name some of the gifts.
