Chapter 16 of the book of Romans is often overlooked like the many genealogies found in the Old Testament. Yet there are items in this chapter that make it worthwhile to spend time with.

There is no general subject, but if you look for a key phrase that is repeated you will find eleven times in these verses: "in the Lord," in Christ Jesus," "in Christ."

Although this section is not tightly structured, an outline can be place on it: (1) commendation (vv. 1-2); (2) greeting (vv. 3-6); (3) a warning (vv. 17-20); (4) salutations (vv. 21-24); and (5) the doxology (vv. 25-27).
