

Covenant)” and Elizabeth means “My God is an Oath” (meaning My God is the Absolutely Faithful One). Both were righteous, and yet had not been blessed with a child. A familiar motif in Scripture is godly people not having children until their old age thus proving the miraculous (Abraham being the greatest example).

Zacharias had a once in a lifetime experience to present the incense before the golden altar. An angel appears to him during this time, and Zacharias responded with fear. The angel says that his prayer has been answered, and that prayer would have been for the spiritual redemption of the people of Israel. Also, certainly Zacharias and his wife had prayed for a child, and that was now to be granted. The angel even gave the name of the child: John.
